CASE DESCRIPTION / SUMMARY

Facts:

The petitioner challenged the show cause notice dated 30.05.2025 issued under Section 74 of the CGST Act alleging suppression of taxable value and short payment of CGST for the period April 2018 to March 2024. The petitioner contended that the notice illegally clubbed multiple financial years in a single show cause notice.

Court Decision:

The Court held that under the statutory scheme of the CGST Act, assessment and recovery of tax are linked to specific tax periods and financial years. The Act prescribes limitation under Sections 73\(10\) and 74\(10\) separately for each financial year, based on the due date of filing the annual return.

The Court relied on earlier decisions of the Bombay High Court holding that consolidation of multiple financial years in a single show cause notice is not permissible, as it aggregates different tax periods having separate limitation periods and statutory treatment.

Accordingly, the show cause notice dated 30.05.2025 was quashed and set aside. The Court granted liberty to the authorities to issue fresh notices strictly in accordance with Section 74 of the CGST Act, if there is no other legal impediment.
